FAQ | ABOUT SPA

Food & drinks

Soothing and revitalizing teas, glacier water and seasonal fruit are available during the sauna area's opening hours. No food or alcoholic drinks may be ordered or brought into the SPA.

Shop | Gifts

Sale of all SPA care products from body and facial treatments, NEWBY wellness tea, and swimwear directly at the Fire & Ice SPA reception.

Arrival time

Please take enough time to fill out a health questionnaire before the start of treatment. We recommend that you arrive at least 5 minutes before your booked time. Out of respect for the following guests, any delay on your part will be deducted from the treatment time.

State of health

When making your reservation, please inform us of any health-related restrictions, allergies, pregnancy, or injuries that could affect your choice of treatment.

What clothes should I wear during the treatment?

Disposable underwear is available in the SPA, which can be worn during the treatment. We recommend that you remove your clothes completely or wear your underwear under your bathrobe.

...and in the Sauna?

As a rule, no clothes are worn in the sauna. You will find bath towels in the SPA on which you can sit or lie during your sauna visit.

If I feel uncomfortable during the treatment?

If you find certain massage treatments or techniques painful or unpleasant, please point this out to the therapist.

Should men shave before the treatment?

Shaving is recommended, but not necessary. If you want to shave, you should do so at least two hours before the start of your facial treatment.

Is there a fitness dress code?

Sportswear and shoes suitable for indoor use are mandatory for use of the fitness area. Towels and detox water are available inside the gym.

Cancellation policy

All treatments that are not canceled 24 hours before the agreed appointment will be charged at 100%. Late arrival will result in the treatment time being shortened. Changing the time after this period cannot be guaranteed.

Children

We are an adult SPA (+ 16), but the indoor pool is available for our little explorers daily from 10:00 to 12:00. Outside of these "Kids hours", access to the Fire & Ice SPA is permitted only from the age of 16.

Valuables

Bergwelt Grindelwald accepts no liability whatsoever for theft in the rooms or in public areas. The hotel cannot be held liable for valuables, large sums of cash or securities that are not deposited in the hotel safe at the main reception (Art. 487/488 OR).

Price

All prices quoted are in Swiss francs (CHF) and include VAT. Prices are subject to change without notice. Tipping is not included in the prices and is welcome at your own discretion.

Gift vouchers

Gift vouchers are always a popular surprise. They can be used for a range of spa treatments as well as fitness and hotel offer. You can order gift vouchers directly at www.bergwelt-grindelwald.com to order.

Please keep this in mind:

The SPA is a place of peace, rest, and relaxation. Please respect the privacy and the need for peace and quiet of other guests. For this reason, the SPA is a cell phone, camera, and smoke-free zone.
